INVITATION TO FOODEXPO 2020

You and your colleagues are invited to Foodexpo – the largest food fair in the Nordic countries, which takes place on 22-24 March 2020 at MCH Messecenter Herning.

We and approximately 600 other exhibitors look forward to welcoming you in 10 exciting halls. Here, you can meet well-known brands, local food producers, passionate entrepreneurs and enthusiastic professionals.

You will also find more activities, competitions and experiences than ever before.

We look forward to seeing you at Foodexpo.

EXPERIENCE AND PARTICIPATE IN MANY EXCITING ACTIVITIES

Entrepreneur area: Explore the uncultivated

Meet the new Danish food producers. Hear about their journey from kitchen table to store shelf and see the entrepreneurs pitch their business ideas to a panel of judges.

Streetfood: Holm's Street Kitchen

Taste Claus Holm's creations when he welcomes you to "Holms Gadekøkken", a street food eating area. Here, you can also look forward to watching and participating in exciting debates inspired by current food trends.

Show kitchen: Celebrity chefs go live

Meet the leading industry experts and get close to the artistry when celebrity chefs and fresh talents show off their skills in the show kitchen.

Competitions: Top talents compete

Don't miss the competitions for best chefs and waiters in the Nordic countries. Taste and vote for Denmark's best delicacies, and see outstanding breads and pastries when the best traditional bakers and pastry chefs compete. Also, don't miss the chance to see creative bartenders from across the Nordic countries compete in three disciplines.

THE GLOBAL GOALS For Sustainable Development

Focus on the Sustainable Development Goals

Foodexpo brings the 12th Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) about responsible consumption and production to the table. Participate in the many workshops, get inspired to your next sustainable meal and learn how to incorporate the SDGs in your everyday life. You can also shop delicious meals and delicacies in the organic grocery store.

Trend area: Check in at the hotel room of the future

Visit two renowned designers' visionary displays of future hotel rooms, and drop by the trendy pop-up restaurant.
